A HOLISTIC APPROACH TO TRAINING

Training You Can Count On

Preparation materials are written and prepared by trainer and consultant, Catalina Medrano, M.Ed., experienced with over twenty years in the ESL/BIL classroom, years of private test preparation and large group training across North Texas.

COACHING AND CONSULTING

An Ongoing Coaching Model

We know by experience that most educators need additional support after initial training and because of this, we have created a coaching model approach to help maximize the preparation options available to educators and support those struggling to master the content. This is available upon request.
